

SPORTSMANSHIP GUIDELINES

(as approved by the War Eagle Conference)

“Be a Fan, Not a Fanatic”

- Respect the game officials and their decisions. No booing.
- Don't do anything to draw attention away from the game and onto you as a crowd.
- Cheer positive cheers for your team with the cheerleaders. Give them your support.
- Dress in school colors. Support your team.
- Show respect for our nation during the National Anthem.
- Abide by each school's building rules. No pop in gym means just that.
- Stand and applaud both teams during introductions.
- Congratulate players from both teams after the game.
- Respect signs, banners, etc. of other schools. Don't vandalize property of others.
- Negative chants and cheers against other schools is prohibited!
- Don't single out players from opposing teams and harass them.
- Dressing in such a manner as to mock the other team or school is inappropriate.
- The players, cheerleaders, and pep band all deserve your utmost respect.
- Applaud injured players when they leave the floor.
